To Whom It May Concern:

Thank you for your recent gift of $1,000 to our Child Sex Offender Internet Investigations (CSIIO) program. We have established 501(c) (3) status which allows us to accept charitable contribution to help fund our crime prevention programs.

Internet access is as common today as having a telephone. Even very young children use online resources and educational features. While the Internet can be very valuable when used properly, the risk to children from online predators cannot be ignored.

I believe that Internet safety education is as important to parents and children as are our undercover investigations. Our investigators have presented the Internet safety presentation "Stranger Danger – Internet Stranger" to over 130 groups of parents and students. We have also made 154 arrests as a result of our ongoing undercover on-line investigations.

Your gift to the District Attorney's Community Partnership, EIN 20-542044, allows us to continue in this valuable work. It is also a charitable contribution under both state and federal guidelines.

Sincerely,

Scott W. Storey
District Attorney
